From the Pastor's Pen

I went on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land last month with 40 people from St. John and other churches. One of the most powerful experiences was visiting the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. This one, massive church is built on the site where Jesus was crucified, died, and was buried. As you come in the front doors, on the right is a chapel leading up to Golgotha. You can wait in line to kneel down and touch the place where the Cross stood. As you exit the chapel, there by the front doors is the stone on which Jesus' body was anointed for burial and wrapped in a linen shroud. You can kneel down and touch the stone, fragrant from centuries of pilgrims' anointing. Going farther, all the way to the left of the Church, is a chapel built over the Tomb where they laid His body. You can wait in line to kneel down and touch the marble stone that for the past 18 centuries has covered the shelf where Jesus' body was laid—the very place where Jesus rose from the dead.

I waited in line and knelt down at each one. It was a powerful experience that brought a catch to my throat and tears to my eyes. I felt the presence of God in that place. I felt the Spirit touch my heart. The pilgrimage to the Holy Land was the trip of a lifetime. We flew halfway around the world to visit the places where Jesus was, to relive the familiar story of His death and resurrection, and feel the touch of His presence once again. We weren't the only ones. People from every tribe, tongue, and language stood in line with us and experienced the same things beside us. People from all around the world were coming to Jerusalem to meet Jesus.

People from all around Boerne will be coming to our church to meet Jesus this Easter. You don't have to go halfway around the world to find Him. Jesus finds you where He promises to be: "where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am in the midst of them" in the Word and in the Sacrament. We expect hundreds of people to come to our church on Easter Sunday. The parking lot will be full, the lines will be long, and someone may be sitting in your spot. Welcome them to God's house. Pray that God will touch them here. Ask God to open their ears to hear His Word, and open their hearts to believe in His Son.

Two thousand years ago, in that place I just visited, Jesus died for us and rose from the dead. Jesus is alive now and drawing people to Himself. We get to be a part of it. Pray for the people God will bring to our church.

- Pastor Eric Waters

MESSAGE from the CONGREGATION PRESIDENT

The great reformer, Martin Luther, wrote the music and lyrics to the famous hymn "A Mighty Fortress". It stirs my soul every time I hear it. The last words are "His kingdom is forever." Wow, forever is a long time! But what great comfort for us, knowing that "this world's tyrant rage" is fleeting, but God's kingdom is forever.

Likewise, our St John leadership eyes are set on the long term. Recently, we activated the charter for the St John endowment fund. Approved long ago by the membership, it provides a fund that builds the kingdom forever. Yes, forever. Your church leadership, being action oriented, brought it to life. It now has modest funding, which will become substantial over the long stretch of time. Watch for more information about this important part of our church's future.

Likewise, we continue apace with the Facilities Master Plan. The draft plan is being finalized for approval by Council. Next steps are phase definition (sequence and timing of the pieces) and membership approval. We are blessed to have a faithful, diligent team. It is hard work, but inspiring to see the awesome possibilities.

None of us know how much of God's plan we will actually see in our lifetime. As it unfolds, we are grateful to witness His grace at every step. Let's hope and pray that St John's children of today will someday praise God for their ancestors' wisdom, understanding, foresight, and joyful service to our Lord.

St. John Congregation President,
Scott Kramer

A NOTE ON STEWARDSHIP

It's Not Always Easy

Jesus was facing his most trying time. He knew what he had to do - fulfill his purpose for coming to live among us as a man. Yet, this did not lessen the weight of what he was facing. Rejection, humiliation, torture, betrayal, and most of all - separation from the Father. He knew what was coming, and asked God if there was any way that this responsibility could be taken from him. We can learn from Jesus' example:

- He brought his concerns to his Father in prayer.
- He needed to obey his Father's will.

39 Going a little farther, he fell with his face to the ground and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will." 42 He went away a second time and prayed, "My Father, if it is not possible for this cup to be taken away unless I drink it, may your will be done."
Matthew 26:39, 42

Even though he was concerned about the difficulties that he was about to encounter, he was committed to carrying out what he had been called to do.

Each of us has a purpose to fulfill. We are given certain talents, capabilities, and resources for a reason. We are put in the right place at the right time to carry out God's will. The question is: are we going to answer the call? Jesus has provided a model for us to follow. Take our concerns to God in prayer, seek His will, follow through. We aren't guaranteed that it will be easy, but we are assured that God will provide what we need.

Your Brother in Christ, Kyle Gass, Chair, St John Lutheran Stewardship Committee

Introducing Church Community Builder (CCB)

Church Community Builder is a web-based program that St. John has begun using to help build and support a more connected, smoother running church. In early April, we will be inviting all our members to sign up, create an account and enjoy the benefits of CCB. Once you have set up your own account, it will be easy for you to become more connected and engaged with our church community from your computer or smartphone.

CCB will allow for you to make pledges, donations and payments for events. It will allow you to see groups that you are involved in, suggest new groups to you, and can help guide you to serving opportunities that fit your gifts, talents, and abilities. Our staff will be able to notify volunteers of available positions and send reminders when they're scheduled to serve. And these are just a few of the benefits.

You will receive an email soon with details and instructions on how to set up your account. Be on the lookout for this email...we want to connect with you!
