From the Pastor's Pen

That's a lot of waiting. Five times in two verses, the psalmist uses that one word "wait." Some people might call that repetitive, but I think it's powerful. As we read through the psalm, the psalmist forces us to do what he finds himself forced to do—wait.

We find ourselves forced to wait a lot these days. The watchmen may wait for the morning, but he's only got hours to wait. We've been waiting for two and a half months now, and still no sight of dawn. How much longer till we can go out in public again like we used to? How much longer till we can gather in church again like we want to? How much longer till we can do the things we used to do without fearing we'll get sick? No one knows, no one can say... and so we wait.

That can get tedious and discouraging unless we do what the psalmist tells us to do: "I wait for the Lord, and in his word I hope." Who would have thought the Bible would have a psalm for a season like this? And yet it does—an entire psalm about waiting, and waiting, and waiting some more. God's Word is our hope. God's Word gives us hope.

"I wait for the Lord, my soul waits for the Lord, and in his word I hope; my soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning, more than watchmen wait for the morning."

Psalm 130:5-6

Lately I've found myself reading more of God's Word than I'm used to. For the past week now I've spent an extra 15 minutes in the Bible, reading through the Minor Prophets three, four, or even five chapters a day. Amos is hardly what you'd call a hopeful book—it's not for nothing he's known as "the Prophet of Doom"—and yet reading his Book has given me hope. I've felt myself calmed and settled by extra time in God's Word, and caught myself reflecting throughout the day on something I read in the morning.

"I wait for the Lord, and in his word I hope." We've all got a lot of waiting to do, and too much waiting can make the heart grow sick. Wait with the Lord. Wait in his Word. If you need a place to start, start with Psalm 120 and read one psalm a day to the end of the Book. Read each psalm slowly, read each psalm more than once. Listen to what God is saying, and you'll hear Him speak.

God's Word is hope, and God's Word brings hope to you. Wait through this season with Him.

MESSAGE from the CONGREGATION PRESIDENT

On a recent Wednesday afternoon, I saw a group of St. John people gathered at the church for the regular Growing Hope distribution. Despite the massive pandemic effects on our world, there were God's people, faithfully caring for the needy. They have not missed a distribution during this entire Covid-19 ordeal! A perfect example of "making Jesus known," as in St. John's mission statement.

All around us, we see such examples. A pandemic disease, that somehow brings out the best in people. Generosity, selfless service, faith in action. God is working through his people to bless others.

That same afternoon, I met with a security company to inspect our new camera system. As so often happens at St. John, members with security expertise have stepped up to plan and implement these measures. What a rich blend of skills and experience in our church!

These are trying times, no doubt. At a recent Council meeting, we were reminded that none of us were there by accident. God knows who will be in our church, what skills and experience they have, what role they will play, and what He will accomplish through each of us. We stepped off with confidence, doing the work of the church. All those diverse skills enable St John to accomplish our mission, no matter what. Know Jesus, Make Jesus Known.

St. John Congregation President,
Scott Kramer

A NOTE ON STEWARDSHIP

Roger Hemminghaus as Chairman of the Endowment and Legacy Committee and Mark Danney as Chairman of the Stewardship Committee asked Gary Juhl from our partner at Legacy Deo to prepare this month's message

The blessing of leaving a Godly Legacy

Having spent the last few newsletter articles reviewing use of our time, talents, and treasure, we will turn now to stewardship as it relates to our "final fruits," i.e. leaving a Godly Legacy. The verse from Proverbs 13 reminds us to keep our life goals, vision, and legacy top-of-mind in all our financial decisions, as every financial decision is really a spiritual decision! When we consider our daily "wants" compared to our future "wants," it pretty quickly becomes evident how temporary satisfaction pales in comparison to leaving a legacy of purpose and generational fulfillment. The use of the term "inheritance" in Proverbs 13 is not limited to money. It also includes how our actions on earth can impact our legacy of godly character qualities like integrity and trustworthiness. Combining a financial inheritance with wisdom and godliness helps ensure that future generations will also manage God's blessings God's way for God's glory long after we've "graduated" to heaven. That result can only be accomplished if we train our children in this so that they may leave the same inheritance to their children, and so it goes. A good place to start in leaving a Godly Legacy is to assure our own estate plan is in place and accurately meets our current needs. That should include assuring the plan reflects our legacy goals related to family and faith. If you have not started that process, or have not reviewed it for some time, then please take the time to start TODAY. St. John has resources available to help through our legacy giving partner, Legacy Deo. Please call the church office for appropriate contact information.

"A good man leaves an inheritance for his children's children ..."
Proverbs 13:22(a)

Mens' Bible Study

Mens' Breakfast

Every other Tuesday 6:30am

"Master Builders Bible For Men" is the foundation for discussion topics.

Each lesson of the Truth Project stands on its own so feel free to jump in. Deepen your insight to a Biblical world view vs. current cultural world views that flood our lives. How might we recognize the deceptions, be open to transformation, and to live succinctly with God's Word? Join the approximately 25- minute video presentations and then join the discussion or just listen in. It's good stuff! Important stuff! Find the link on our Week-at-a-Glance email which comes out every Tuesday or email Matt letting him know you want a reminder and Zoom link for this Shepherds Cave time.

Sunday, June 7th and 14th (Part I & II) Lesson 4 - Theology: Who is God?

Eternal life, according to Jesus, is knowing God in an intimate, personal, and relational way. Such knowledge, which is possible only because of divine revelation, transforms us from the inside out as we begin to see ourselves in the light of His majesty and holiness.

Sunday, June 21st and 28th (Part I & II) Lesson 5 - Science: What is True?

The Bible Part One: Science, the "systematic study of the natural world," brings to light innumerable evidences of Intelligent Design. But Darwinian theory transforms science from the honest investigation of nature into a vehicle for propagating a godless philosophy.

Part Two: A careful examination of molecular biology and the fossil record demonstrates that evolution is not a "proven fact." Meanwhile, history shows that ideas, including Darwinism as a social philosophy, have definite consequences - consequences that can turn ugly when God is left out of the picture.

This class is for adults, young adults as well as juniors and seniors in high school. Currently we offer at 8am and 9:30am Zoom times but when we meet again in person we will meet in Room #117, now renamed the Shepherds Cave. Bring your Bible and a notebook as we, by His Spirit, seek to grow in wisdom and Biblical maturity.

CHURCH NEWS & UPCOMING EVENTS

Meet Alliyah Greaver

Alliyah Greaver joins St. John as Vicar (Intern Pastor)

In late June/early July, we will welcome Alliyah Greaver as Vicar (intern) here at St. John! She will serve at our church from June 2020 to July 2021. We are anxious to meet Alliyah and she is very excited to join us.

A little about Alliyah: She was born in Yankton, South Dakota as the daughter of two pastors.

She received her undergraduate degree in Religion and Socio-Legal Studies, with a minor in Philosophy from Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. She attended Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota for two years and will be receiving her Masters of Divinity at the North American Lutheran Seminary of the NALC in Ambridge, PA in June of this year. Boerne Community Coalition

HEARTS OF LOVE FOOD BAGS

LOVE Boerne Kids, a program of the Boerne Community Coalition (BCC), assembles Hearts of Love Food Bags to be delivered to children participating in the Summer Lunch Program.

To help meet the increased need and reach more children this summer, the BCC has partnered with St. John Lutheran Church to provide a drive-thru / walk-up service for our Hearts of Love (HOL) Weekly Food Bags. These bags will contain 7 breakfast items, 7 lunch items, 7 pieces of fresh fruit, and daily snacks (all non-perishable except the fruit) designed to provide food for a child for one week (except dinner), replacing the free meals they receive while in school. We are working with Blessings in a Backpack and the Boerne ISD to ensure the parents/guardians of children who are now receiving BISD Meal Service are aware of the summer distribution at St. John Lutheran Church. We hope to provide up to 300 HOL bags per week for 11 weeks of summer. The cost to provide food for one week to a child facing food insecurity is roughly $15, or $165 for the entire summer!

If you are interested in volunteering for the HOL Weekly Food Bags over the summer, please visit our website under 'Events'. High school students can earn service hours, and we have opportunities for student leadership.

Clothing Drive! Can YOU help?

On June 3, at StJLC, bags will be provided with information on each sponsored child, including age and sizes. Sponsors should return bags no later than June 30 to StJLC.

Sponsor a BISD child and provide NEW clothing for the first day of school:

1 bottom (1 denim, pants, shorts or skirt),
1 top (1 dress in lieu of top for young girls),
Socks, Underwear
