From the Pastor's Pen

Summer is over, September is here, and there's lots going on at St. John Lutheran Church! Our Wednesday evening activities begin September 1: meals, games, fellowship, and learning. Michelle and I will teach her book Faith@Home. It's a five-week course about discipling your family and building a Christian culture at home. Look for more information inside this newsletter. Sign up online and join us in class.

The 24 Hours of Prayer was such a success last year that we're doing it again. A year may have gone by, but our world, church, home, and families still need prayer, perhaps now more than ever. I ask you join me in praying at the church for the church for 24 hours around the clock, from noon on Saturday, September 18 to noon on Sunday, September 19. The commitment is to pray for one hour. We're looking for at least two people for each one-hour time slot so that no one prays alone. Sign up online or by Connect Cards on September 5 and 12. Prayer changes lives. Prayer changes churches. Prayer changes communities. Please join me in this.

I invite you to join me also at a Townhall Meeting on the Chapel and Shepherd House project, after the Late Service on September 12. In 2019, the congregation approved a new Facilities Master Plan. In 2020, the congregation approved the first, modest step in that plan to move Grace Place and build a new storage garage. This year, the congregation will decide whether to take the next step by remodeling the Historic Chapel and Shepherd House. That vote will happen at the Annual Congregational Meeting on September 26 after the Late Service. But we want you to have plenty of time to consider the proposal and the opportunity to ask questions about it and let your voice be heard. So, we're holding a Townhall two weeks earlier, on September 12. We'll have handouts and drawings available so that you can make an informed decision. Please come to the Townhall to learn more about this exciting project and why we're proposing it. Please come to the congregational meeting and vote.

There's lots going on at St. John Lutheran Church!

- Pastor Eric Waters

A NOTE ON STEWARDSHIP

Pouring Ourselves Out in Service

How willing are you to pour out your life in service to others? Are you ready to sacrifice yourself, your time, and your possessions, to be open to the calling God has for you? Or are you waiting for that calling to match your own desires, for the time to be right, or for the way to be made easier?

Paul faced far worse hardships than most of us ever will in his ministry and travels. And yet, despite these trials, he was glad and rejoiced in the fact that his service glorified God and brought the people to Him. Like many of us who feel overwhelmed and without the energy to keep going, Paul's life was being poured out. But if we are truly serving God we can rejoice that He will use our efforts to plant his Word and carry his mission to all those in need.

Our service is not to build ourselves up in the eyes of others, but to build others' lives up. Let God use you to glorify Him and show the world true discipleship. Listen to Him, even when His way seems hard, and be glad and rejoice in the life

But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice together with all of you.

Philippians 2:17 (NET)

He has given you.

Your Brother in Christ,
Michael Hoepfner, Chairman
Stewardship Committee

The St. John Lutheran Legacy Endowment Fund has made its first distribution!

Inspired by our Vicar, Alliyah Greaver, and eager to produce more pastors for the church, the Endowment Fund has established a new "St. John (Boerne) Scholarship" at the North American Lutheran Seminary. The needs-based scholarship will cover half the tuition of one student for each of the three years of seminary training. The recipient will meet with our church by conference call or Zoom each semester, and will come down for a personal visit once. The goal is to know the seminarian we're supporting and establish a relationship with him or her.

If you'd like to learn more about the Legacy Endowment Fund or how you can contribute, please contact Pastor Waters at the church.

Fraud Prevention Seminar. October 17, 12:15pm

While reading this invitation to the upcoming Fraud Prevention Seminar, scam artists and fraudsters are actively planning their next moves to defraud you and others of your hard earned money and savings. [Consumer fraud totaled $56 billion in 2020] Ultimately, we are each responsible for protecting ourselves and our loved ones against such frauds and scams.

The purpose of the upcoming seminar is to provide you with the knowledge and tools to protect yourselves and others from becoming a victim of such scams. The scope of the subject matter to be presented involves the history of and types of actual scam and fraud scenarios, the "red flags" to identify the various scam attempts, the psychological aspects and knowledge used by the scam artists to influence and defraud the victim, the proactive measures to prevent the fraud or minimize the potential loss, and actions to be taken once one has been scammed.

The presenter will be Jim Peters, CPA, Certified Internal Auditor, and Certified Fraud Examiner. He has 41 years in the banking and credit union industry as an Internal Auditor, Fraud Investigator, and Bank Secrecy Act Compliance Officer.

St. John's Family3 Ministries is offering skills for the journey. Through short DVD segments, discussion questions and an optional book to read to take up the beautiful challenge of daily talking and living faith in your home.

- Imagine raising a daughter who wouldn't think of going to bed without talking to you about her highs and lows every night, even though she's 16.
  - Imagine raising a son who won't turn out the lights without asking you about your day, praying for your highs and lows, and blessing you.
  - Imagine growing up in a home where everyone feels loved, valued and heard every night; a family that seeks God's wisdom, will and Word at the center of their lives; an intimate community where every night is an experience of caring, sharing, comfort and peace.
- Does this sound like an impossible dream? It isn't. Does it sound like an improbable dream? Maybe. One thing is for sure: This dream is not going to magically materialize without intention, commitment and a workable plan on your part to make it happen. (pg. 11 Holding Your Family Together, Melheim)

Last month we had guests from the Oromo Evangelical Lutheran Church of Houston, who served us a wonderful Ethiopian meal, and Pastor Jordan Long from the Lutheran Church of South Sudan! What a blessing it was to hear wonderful stories of faith! Here is a note from Pastor Kamiso Boru of the Oromo Evangelical Lutheran Church:

Dear Pastor Eric and Council members,

This past Sunday was a day we will forever cherish. We all enjoyed our time with your congregation as we were blessed with an amazing sermon, worship, bible study, and an enjoyable time with such kind people. We wanted to thank you again, not only for your support but for the opportunity you gave us to come and thank you in person. We are also very grateful that everyone was so warm in welcoming us, and very friendly as we shared our traditional foods with them. We are very grateful God allowed us to be a part of something so special. Please pass my gratitude to all St John Lutheran Church members. May God bless you and your ministry!

- Sincerely, Rev Kamiso Boru

Dear St. John,

Thank you very much for the generous school supplies and monetary donations that our church contributed to Sam's Kids this summer. It took two trips to deliver all of the supplies! Together with friends from the community, Sam's Kids was able to provide over 400 backpacks with school supplies for students attending school in Boerne ISD this fall. Thank you to St. John for continuing to support Sam Champion's vision for ALL of our kids here in Boerne. Thank you

- Maryanna Pearson
