Pastor Eric Waters

Pastor Mariola Bergquist

From the Pastor's Pen

We have much to be thankful for this November. We begin with All Saints Sunday, the one day of the year when we remember those who have died with faith in Christ within the last twelve months. We give God thanks for the eternal life which He has given them through the death and resurrection of His Son. We give God thanks that we will see them again when Jesus comes again, or Jesus comes to take us home.

The second Sunday is New Members Sunday, when we give thanks to God for the people He sends us. I anticipate 25-30 people will join us that Sunday. We give thanks to God for continued growth.

On the third Sunday of the month we'll give thanks to God for the resources He has given us. November 21 is Consecration Sunday, the one day of the year when we make a commitment for what we will give to the Lord next year. You'll receive a Pledge Card in the mail the week before Consecration Sunday. Please talk with your family about what you'll give to the Lord, make your pledge, and bring it with you that Sunday.

A few days after that is Thanksgiving Day, the one day of the year our nation sets aside to give thanks to God for His blessing. When you sit down to eat this year, I encourage you to open up the Bible, read a verse, and lead your family in prayer. You could use Psalm 75:1 (shown in center), or Psalm 106:1 ("Oh give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His mercy endures forever"), or Psalm 127 (the tradition I've built in my family). The important thing is to give God thanks. All that you have, and all whom you love, are gifts from the Lord. Give God thanks for them, and let the people in your life know you love them this Thanksgiving Day.

The Sunday after that, the fourth Sunday of November, is the first Sunday of Advent. Advent is the one season of the Church year when we prepare our hearts for the Coming of the Lord. This year we'll do that by preaching on Christmas carols, a different one each Sunday. We begin with the one which begins Advent every year: "Oh Come, Oh Come, Emmanuel." We'll rejoice and give thanks that Emmanuel has come to us as a Baby—and will come again as King. We have much to be thankful for this November. Come, and join us, and give God thanks!

- Pastor Eric Waters

We give thanks to you, O God; we give thanks, for your name is near. We recount your wondrous deeds.

Psalm 75:1

A NOTE ON STEWARDSHIP

Responsible Use of Our Talents

Christ said that it is more blessed to give than to receive. Do you really believe that? In what ways have you been blessed by giving? Sometimes it's not easy to give. We have all experienced that. Why do we want to keep things for ourselves? We want to be comfortable, perhaps. But do we put our desires above Christ's kingdom? How do you balance giving and keeping? There are practical matters but also heart matters. If we live "by faith" is it possible that God will supply our every need?

We are all called to be followers of Christ. Being a follower brings wonder and insight, comfort and peace, but it also brings challenges and encourages us to see the world in new and startling ways. Following is a daily decision to join our risen Lord on the path to which we are invited. It is a decision to open ourselves to both the wonder and the challenge.

Sunday November 21st is Consecration Sunday. On this day we will offer our tithe commitments to the Lord for 2022.

"In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

Acts 20:35

We ask not only for your monetary pledges, but also pledges of your time and talents. Please spend time in prayer and see how the Lord wants you to use your gifts.

Your Brother in Christ,
Michael Hoepfner, Chairman
Stewardship Committee

NALC Disaster Buckets: Project Update

In the last two years, StJLC has partnered with the North American Lutheran Church National Disaster Team to provide Disaster Relief Buckets and Quilts to the Rosenberg, TX warehouse. From there they are distributed to churches for local families in need.

The Buckets contain 10 items that aid in clean up including gloves, cleansers, bleach, brushes, and contractor bags. The cost of the items is between $10-$12, plus the cost of the bucket which were fortunately donated by a generous member. A report from the week of September 20 shows shipments for Hurricane Ida to Louisiana to be 729 Flood Buckets and 181 quilts plus tools, food, health kits, and school supplies. StJLC packed and shipped 250 buckets on August 23 plus 100 empty buckets and 30 quilts. A request for more supplies was received for additional items so they could pack more buckets due to extreme need. We responded and were able to deliver items for 150 more buckets, an additional 100 empty buckets, and 20 more quilts. This means that StJLC provided over 50% of the buckets and 30% of the quilts that were given to the families in need.

Thank you to the congregation of St. John for your caring and benevolence. Compliments to you. A huge thanks goes out to our quilters and those who helped with this project. Each of you have Blessed many in need. Thank you for your service,

Shepherd's Cave Happenings:

Sunday Mornings
9:30am
Room 117

Though COVID has inadvertently helped remind us of the importance of family connection; the idolatry of consumerism at Christmas (Christ's Birthday) remains. Get a jump start this Advent season by taking a look at a group of Christ-followers who chose to make Christmas what it ought to be – a joyous celebration of Jesus' birth that enriches our hearts and the world around us, not a retail circus that depletes our pocketbooks and defeats our spirits. Come see and discuss the DVD series (and book): Advent Conspiracy. This four week exploration shows you how to substitute consumption with compassion by practicing four simple, but powerful, countercultural concepts.

November 14: Worship Fully – Because Christmas begins and ends with Jesus!

November 21: Spend Less – And free your resources for things that truly matter.

November 28: (Break – Thanksgiving Weekend) NO Family3 Ministries classes

December 5: Give More – Of your presence: Your hands, your words, your time, your heart.

December 12: Love All – The poor, the forgotten, the marginalized, and the sick, in ways that make a difference.

The Christian-oriented GriefShare bereavement program, under the guidance of Pastor Bergquist, continues and is available to both StJLC members and non-members. Anyone aged 17 and older mourning the death of a loved one is invited to come at any point during the 14-week cycle, as each class is a stand-alone unit. There is no charge for this ministry.

Meeting options are: Tuesdays, 10am to noon through November 16 and Wednesdays, 6pm to 8pm through November 17.

Childcare is available with prior notice. Both classes meet in the Education Wing, first floor.

More information is available online at www.griefshare.org or by calling Connie at 512-779-5508, Barbara at 210-373-9070, or the church office at 830-249-3651.

SUNDAY MORNINGS FOR L.A.M.B.S³

Please pray for our teachers and young people as they take in the Scriptures. Here is a brief of their lessons for November:

Kindergarten and 1st graders will learn about Abraham's call and testing as he comes to understand that it is God who provides.

2nd graders will delve into the "Lost Sheep" parable and the "Rich Fool" thus exploring the Lord as our Shepherd who wants us to know Him.

3rd graders will see Jesus' ministry began with His baptism and wilderness experience as well as the call of His disciples.

4th graders witness the power of God through His disciples and see God's Word continue to spread in miraculous ways.

5th graders will be learning about the following heroes of faith this month: William Tyndale and John Wesley.

SUNDAY MORNINGS FOR S³H.E.E.P.

6th and 7th graders continue their exploration of other religions comparing their beliefs to Christianity. This month they will finish their look at Buddhism and take some time to celebrate as they review what they have learned thus far. Please pray for discerning hearts and minds. Students meet in Room 212, the Fold at 9:30am.

8th, 9th and 10th graders continue to seek to grow in their relationship with Jesus by learning and practicing spiritual disciplines. They too will take some reflection time as they process what they have been learning and practicing. Please pray that students will be eager to incorporate these practices into their life. Students ought to meet Mark in the Family Life Center at 9:30am and then they will go together to the Historic Chapel.

11th and 12th graders will wrestle with the topics of Theology: Who is God? and then they will enter the topic of Science: What Is True? The Truth Project presentations lead to important discussions. Please pray that clarity and truth will always prevail in these meeting times. Students meet in room 213, the Upper Room at 9:30am for this exploration time.

There Is NO Sunday School on November 28 due to Thanksgiving Break.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT ACTIVITIES

Fellowship, Learning, and Serving remain the backbone of these nights.
