From the Pastor's Pen

March is here and Lent is upon us. Lent is the 40-day season of preparation for Easter. If Easter is the time when we celebrate the new life won for us by the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, then Lent is the time when we intentionally turn away from our old life and the sins that have become too comfortable for us. Many of us will take on a spiritual discipline this Lent, often giving up something we hold near and dear. Last year, Texas gave up electricity for Lent. Lord willing, we won't do that again! But what will you give up this year? How will you Walk Daily with the Lord over these next six weeks?

Lent begins on March 2, Ash Wednesday, when we'll receive the sign of the Cross in ashes on our foreheads to "remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return." Services are in the Sanctuary at 10am and 7pm. I've always found a Sanctuary filled with people with Crosses on their foreheads to be a powerful and sobering sight. I hope you can join us.

Lent continues with a new Sunday sermon series called "Through Their Eyes." The series tells the story of Jesus' final week through the eyes of the other characters: Caiaphas the High Priest, Judas the betrayer, Herod the "other" King, Peter the Rock who crumbled, and Pilate the politician. It's a new look at an old story, one which should help us see it in a new light. I hope you can join us.

I hope you can also join us for our midweek Lenten worship services, too. Beginning March 9, we'll gather every Wednesday at 6:30pm in the Sanctuary. Our format is the Holden Evening Prayer, a beautiful and easy-to-sing prayer service. Our sermons will be on the Gospel lessons assigned by the lectionary. Worship lasts about a half hour and should be over by 7pm. Please join us for dinner beforehand in the Family Life Center, starting at 5:45pm. Midweek services are a great way to Connect Consistently, Worship Weekly, and spur your Daily Walk. They're also a great spiritual discipline to take on for Lent. I hope you can join us.

Lent is upon us, the season of preparation. May this Lenten season be a blessing for you,

- Pastor Eric Waters

A NOTE ON STEWARDSHIP

Being Good Stewards

In the beginning, God created us to be stewards of His creation. We are called to be caretakers of all aspects of this world, from the environment and animals to our families and communities. God has entrusted us with the world and we must now accept that responsibility and serve faithfully.

God has granted us our gifts and talents to help us fulfill this responsibility. Some of us may travel to help those affected by natural disasters, while others labor on Sunday mornings to serve breakfast to our fellow parishioners. Some may be called to evangelize to foreign nations while others lead studies in our local community. Whatever your gifts, use them to the glory of God and the betterment of our fellow man.

“Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful.”

(1 Corinthians 4:2)

In all things, I hope you find that peace and joy that God brings when you center your life around Him. God bless you!

Your Brother in Christ,
Michael Hoepfner, Chairman
Stewardship Committee

Meet St. John's First Scholar, Luke Beaver

The congregation of St. John financially supports a seminary student with a gift from our church. Luke Beaver is our first scholar! He is a new NALS seminarian who will also be training for Army chaplaincy. Here is a little bit about Luke, in his own words:

“My name is Luke Beaver. I am in my second year of a three-year Master of Divinity program at Trinity School for Ministry, North American Lutheran Seminary. I grew up in the Lutheran church in central Pennsylvania. I have a sister who currently lives in New York City and my parents reside in Selinsgrove, PA. I attended Temple University with a major in Environmental Studies and a minor in Religion.

Upon graduating Temple University, I commissioned into the Army Reserve with an active-duty commitment. I am currently serving as a Chaplain Candidate, Second Lieutenant in the 365 Engineer Battalion out of Schuylkill Haven, PA. After I am ordained and am properly credentialed, I hope to be an active-duty Army Chaplain.

Thank you to the leadership and congregation of St. John Lutheran Church in Boerne, TX for supporting me in my ministerial education.”

New! CONNECTIONS Fellowship Group

A Friends in Faith Group is starting to connect St. John members and visitors who are "under the hill" - young adults/families. With more and more younger people and families joining the church, we want to provide a fellowship opportunity within and outside of the church. The group will meet the last Saturday of every month starting March 26. The events may or may not include kids as we want opportunities for the adults to get to know each other and other opportunities where the kids can come and connect, too. We can provide the names of teenagers who work in the nursery if you need a babysitter at your home. We will also start meeting at church on Sunday mornings (starting March 27) in the Family Life Center at 9:30am for weekly fellowship. We hope to evolve into a weekly devotional/Bible study as we see where the group wants to go and grow in faith.

Our first event will take place on Saturday, March 26 at 6pm at the home of George and Marissa Klein (117 Ranger Dr. in Boerne). This will be an adult only evening. We will have an Italian Potluck and ask those coming to bring an appetizer, side, or dessert. BYOB. Please RSVP to Marissa 210-393-4653.

We look forward to the connections we are going to make as we grow together in knowing Jesus and making Jesus known.

CLAYS for CHRIST

New Fellowship Group

A new group has formed at St. John Lutheran church for shotgun shooters and people who might be interested in learning how to shoot moving airborne targets – clays that is. It's the "Clays for Christ" (C4C) group led by StJLC member, Jim Grier.

Whether beginner or experienced, whether a member of St. John or not, C4C is all about fellowship outdoors, using the opportunity to reinforce our Christianity and to act on our discipleship in Christ. To learn more, visit our website: www.stjohnlutheran.com or contact Jim Grier at 830-431-1880, or Art Humphries at 505-504-8500.

Safety Tips for our Congregation

We live in a dangerous world. While we, people of faith, put on the armor of God, we also use common sense to protect ourselves and our loved ones. It's easy to become complacent when things are going well, however, emergency situations can arise quickly and catch us off guard.

St. John Lutheran Church's Emergency Response Ministry (ERM), staffed by volunteers, works to keep our congregation safe in various ways. To that end, the ERM will begin providing safety tips for the congregation from time to time, reminders of things we probably already know, but tend to forget. These reminders will be displayed on Sundays on the screens at the front of the Sanctuary.

As the ERM continues to serve this congregation, it welcomes your comments and/or suggestions, by contacting Dave Depreiest at 210-241-0277 or Sharon Tschirhart at 210-215-2976.

GriefShare Support Continues

The Christian-oriented GriefShare bereavement program, under the guidance of Pastor Bergquist, continues and is available to both StJLC members and non-members. Anyone aged 17 and older mourning the death of a loved one is invited to come at any point during the 14-week cycle, as each class is a stand-alone unit. There is no charge for this ministry.

Meeting options are: Tuesdays, 10am-noon through May 3 and Wednesdays, 6pm-8pm through May 4. Childcare is available with prior notice. Both classes meet in the Education Wing, first floor. (Note: Season of Lent begins with Ash Wednesday on March 2. Groups will not meet on Tuesday, March 1 or Wednesday, March 2.)
