From the Pastor's Pen

The month of November begins with the saints who have gone to be with Jesus, and ends as we prepare for Jesus to come again. The first Sunday of the month, November 6, is All Saints. Jesus promises, "Whoever believes in me, though they die, yet shall they live; and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die" (John 11:25-26). On All Saints Sunday we remember those who have died with faith in Jesus Christ, and remember Jesus' unfulfilling promise to them. Come join us as we honor their memory and thank Jesus for His victory.

The following Sunday I start a two-week miniseries on stewardship called "Consecration and Thanksgiving." The first Sunday, November 13, focuses on giving as an act of discipleship. I'll preach about how we consecrate, or "set aside," a proportion of our money to give to the Lord's work in this church.

I'll give a couple of illustrations of what that "setting aside" might look like. Pledge Cards will arrive in the mail the next week. We ask you to fill them out and bring them back on November 20 for Consecration Sunday, when we lay them down before the Lord. I'll use that as an opportunity to say "thank you" to St. John and equip people with some Scriptures and prayers to share around the Thanksgiving table.

The final Sunday of the month begins the season of Advent.

Advent looks forward to the birth of Jesus Christ, and this year we'll prepare ourselves by looking at the "other characters" in the story: Zechariah and Elizabeth, Joseph and Mary. We'll learn from them how to welcome the Lord into our lives.

- Pastor Eric Waters

A NOTE ON STEWARDSHIP

Using Our Time Wisely

Procrastination. It's something most, if not all of us, have struggled with, whether we are a student with homework or an employee with a report to file. We put off things that seem difficult or distasteful, knowing that the problems will not go away, but shutting them out as long as we can. Sometimes the things we put off aren't even that troublesome to us, but we still allow ourselves to be drawn away seeking more pleasurable activities.

God reminds us that our time on this Earth is valuable, and that we need to spend it doing His will. God's plan for us

"Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is"

Ephesians 5:15-17

is not to live empty lives with no meaning, but to have an enriched existence where we help our neighbors, spread His Word, and find that inner peace that comes from letting Jesus live inside us. Certainly we need to allow ourselves time to relax and enjoy the life He has given us, but we should always be wary of allowing that hedonistic pleasure to become the fulcrum of life.

Maybe you have been feeling called to serve in the church, or to tithe more from the bounties He has granted you, but you keep telling yourself you will do it "after <this> happens." Get going! Stop waiting for something to happen to make the most of what He has given you TODAY. Do your best with what God has given you, and always give of your time, talents, and treasures and God will reward you in innumerable ways.

Your Brother in Christ,
Michael Hoepfner, Chairman
Stewardship Committee

THE VICAR'S CORNER

By the end of this month, I'll be halfway through my internship here at St. John. It's remarkable how quickly time passes, and it's been a lot of fun for both Nella and me so far.

For this Vicar's Corner, I want to zoom in on my sermon on The Glory of King David, from October 2. The Scripture for this week was 2 Samuel 5 - 10, and the context is the very height of David's reign, before his sin with Bathsheba. The most remarkable thing about his reign is not something David did but rather what God promised to him.

What I've done with the QR code is condensed all of the slides into five (if you recall, the slides were too busy and too small to read, unfortunately!). And now, I want to point to the main theme of the sermon: That what God promised to Eve, Abraham, and David is Jesus. And furthermore, Jesus took all of the promises about himself and gave them to us!

I encourage you to mediate on these Scriptures and slides, remembering that Christ was our promise from the very beginning. Jesus was always the promise, and the promise was always meant to be shared with us. What good news!

+ Vicar Justin
