SURVIVING AN ACTIVE-SHOOTER EVENT

Featuring Jack Wilson

“Active shooter” has become an all-too-common phrase in the news. As these incidents continue to occur across the country, understanding how to react to an active-shooter situation could be the key to protecting your life and the lives of those around you.

In this course, led by a U.S. LawShield® Independent Program Attorney and other training professionals, you’ll discover practical insights and safety tips to help you prepare for whatever the future may hold. You’ll also hear from Jack Wilson, a U.S. LawShield member who defended his church’s congregation during an active-shooter event in White Settlement, Texas.

Key course takeaways:

- Effective strategies for handling active-shooter incidents
- Insights on how to proactively respond to improve survival odds
- Essential survival tactics
- Real-life lessons learned from the White Settlement church shooting
